Arts (NHSDA) serves to identify those honor students of junior and senior high school age for nomination for the NDEO Artistic Merit, Leadership and Academic Achievement Award, the highest student dance award in the nation. There are two levels of adjudication: State and National. At the state level, the top applicants are selected to receive a state award and are then forwarded for adjudication at the national level. Again this year, the National Winner of the award will receive up to a $500 scholarship and a certificate. There will also be National Finalists and Honorable Mentions. Personal congratulatory letters from NDEO's Executive Director are sent to the school district superintendent, school principal and state program arts coordinators. High school students must access the application via the NDEO Accepted Application Page. The online application for high school students must be submitted by February 22, 2015. Middle school students will access application forms directly from the National Honor Society for Dance Arts Page on the FDEO Website. Approaches to Teacher Evaluation for K-12 Dance Educators

Teacher Evaluation is a crucial issue for all teachers but especially for arts educators, including dance educators. Read about the Florida Dance Performance Assessment (FDPA) created by FDEO in the Teacher Evaluation: Dance Strategies Report. The document highlights outlines an overview of national, state and local perspectives, and provides strategies and resources on the issues and inequities of teacher evaluation in dance, and what can be done to advocate for a better system. HOW TO JOIN FDEO...

Once you join our national organization you are automatically a member of Florida Dance Education Organization. In order to join you must go to the FDEO Membership Page. From there, you will be provided a simple paperless transaction and you are automatically a member.

FDEO/NDEO is a member-driven organization. Members vote, hold office, develop world-class publications, serve on national task force committees, develop student and teacher standards and assessments, choreograph, teach dance and academics, administer dance programs, do research, and a host of other professional activities. To a large extent, members determine the future direction of the organization - and importantly, they make systemic change in dance education in the United States.

THANK YOU TO ALL THOSE WHO SERVE

As Jackie Bryan, Jennifer Simmers, Toranika Washington, Tom Hagood, and Martha Satinoff complete their terms on the FDEO Board of Directors we sincerely thank each of them for their service. Although Martha will no longer be on the board, she has accepted the responsibilities of the FDEO National Honor Society for Dance Arts Committee Chair. This means that she will continue to work closely with the board and the FDEO members at large during 2015 to 2017.

FDEO board membership is voluntary. There is no monetary compensation for the years of service these board members have rendered. As these dedicated leaders embark on their new personal or professional ventures we know that they will continue to promote the mission of FDEO and dance education centered in the arts.

On behalf of the FDEO Membership at Large, we express a sincere depth of gratitude and wish them all the best in the new year!
