Employment & Professional Growth Opportunities

Florida School of the Arts at St. Johns River State College is looking for adjunct instructors to teach fundamental ballet technique, fundamental jazz technique, and musical theater dance styles for musical theater and non-dance major students. Qualified candidates must possess a master's degree in dance and/or have professional dance experience. Candidates with previous teaching and/or professional expertise in other dance styles (such as ballroom, hip-hop, yoga, Pilates, etc) are encouraged to apply. Applicant must pass verification of employment/reference screening and background check. Applications must be completed on-line through <http://sjrstate.edu/humanresources.html>. If you require additional information, please contact Mary Love Ward, MFA Professor of Modern Dance, Florida School of the Arts at (386) 312-4311 or e-mail maryward@sjrstate.edu

Orange County Public Schools has multiple anticipated dance teacher vacancies for the 2015-2016 school year. Interested candidates should email resumes to Ashley Spero (ashley.spero@ocps.net). Candidates should also complete an application online at www.ocps.net.

Emotions Dance Company (EDC) is expanding its talent and holding auditions for professional-level dancers age 18 and over. Dancers should have experience in ballet, jazz, modern and contemporary styles. The audition will take place on Tuesday, May 19, 2015 from 8:30-10 p.m. at the Edge Dance Studios (870 South Sun Drive, Unit #1000 Lake Mary, FL 32746). The company currently has three female, three male, and two apprentice positions

University of South Florida. He is a graduate of the Boston University School of Law and a Distinguished Alumnus of the MIT Media Laboratory. The best that can honestly be said of his dancing skills is that they almost never result in injury to persons or property. The luncheon is included in your conference registration fee.

Please remember to check the box indicating your intention to attend the luncheon on your conference registration form.

Miami City Ballet is seeking six college students or young professionals, age 20 or older, to work as chaperones at the MCB Summer Intensive. Qualifications: A background in dance or other arts is desirable but not required. Previous experience as a chaperone with students ages 12- 19 is preferable. Please access the Miami City Ballet Webpage for more information.

Jacksonville University is now accepting applications for the low-residency MFA Choreography Degree. The next session begins June 22, 2015. The program emphasizes the conceptual and creative process of generating new works that are grounded in both classical and contemporary genres. Each year, the program starts with a 6-week Summer Intensive in Florida on the beautiful campus of Jacksonville University. This is followed by two non-resident semesters using a combination of distance study with faculty and mentors who work with each student to expand their project-based work. This MFA is particularly geared toward artists in transition and expects that applicants should have professional experience in the field prior to application. For information visit: <http://mfa.ju.edu> or www.ju.edu or contact: Cari Coble Director, Graduate Studies – College of Fine Arts Jacksonville University. Call 904.256.7398 or e-mail ccoble@ju.edu

Dunham Technique Certification

The Institute for Dunham Technique Certification presents the 2015 Dunham Certification Workshop. The event will be held from June 28 to July 3 and will be sponsored by the University of South Florida's School of Theatre and Dance. The Dunham technique is a codified dance training technique created and developed in the 1930's by noted artist and anthropologist Katherine Dunham. This technique is designed to develop strong dancers. Its focus on upper body and pelvis isolations make it ideal for modern, jazz and dance forms of the African Diaspora. For further information paste this link into your browser. dunhamcertification.org

and Academic Achievement Award is a prestigious honor at the State and National level. The names of the top 2 high school students have been forwarded to NDEO and will be entered into the applicant pool at the national level. Good luck to Jennifer, and Morgan!

The application process at the high school level is extensive and competitive. All of the applicants were adjudicated in three categories:

- Artistic Merit: The candidate demonstrates technical and artistic excellence in dance as evidenced by performing original choreography and a choreography essay.
- Leadership: The candidate demonstrates outstanding leadership in and outside the field of dance at the school, community, state, and/or national level as evidenced by a strong resume, recommendation letter and leadership essay.
- Academic Achievement: The candidate demonstrates academic excellence with a high cumulative grade point average and two essays detailing future plans and the impact of dance.
